

KYOTO UNIVERSITY
HEIDELBERG UNIVERSITY
JOINT DEGREE MASTER IN TRANSCULTURAL STUDIES

Screening

映画上映 & 監督トーク

SEMINAR ROOM 2 OCTOBER 28, 2024

2F, FACULTY OF LETTES MAIN BLDG. START FROM 15:00 - 18:15

The Transcultural Studies Department will hold a screening of the film The Roots (2013, Senzoninaru) and invite director Kaoru IKEYA for a lecture. Director Ikeya is currently a professor at Konan Women's University, and also known for directing numerous documentaries, including 12 NHK Specials, The Ants (2006) and Lung Ta (2015).

His acclaimed work The Roots won various awards such as the Prize of the Ecumenical Jury-Special Mention Forum at Berlin International Film Festival, the film which explores the rebuilding of life after the Great East Japan Earthquake. The Roots follows an elderly lumberjack, Naoshi SATO, who strives to rebuild his house after losing his son in the earthquake.

GUEST

KAORU IKEYA

Film Director and Professor
Konan Women's University

<https://senzoninaru.com/>

MORE INFORMATION FROM HERE

For questions, please contact: wadamarciano.mitsuyo.6w@kyoto-u.ac.jp